DEMONSTRATING THE
MODERN TECHNIQUE
TAUGHT AT SUGARBUSH

N. Y. Herald Tribune Photo

Sugarbush is fortunate to have one of the finest ski schools in the United States. The most modern ski technique is taught by a staff of leading American and foreign professionals.

Director of the Ski School is the internationally renowned ski champion, Peter Estin. The former Dartmouth racing star succeeded Emile Allais and Stein Eriksen as Director of the Ski School at Portillo, Chile. He has been chief instructor of the Ski Troops of the Chilean Army and directs the Ski School at La Parva, Chile. As a foremost authority on modern ski technique, he has been featured in motion pictures and on radio and television.

A few of the outstanding teachers in the Ski School are listed below, with their previous connections:
